(17.01.1940 - 07.03.2024)

Her visionary leadership and dedication have left an indelible mark on the educational landscape, and she will be dearly missed.

Dear Parents and Students

It always seems impossible until it's done.”

It's hard to believe that another school year has come to an end. In this last quarter, we found little pockets of joy and overcame challenges to cross the finish line.

Together, we celebrated Annual Functions, which celebrated the old and the young, the bold, and the brave. We acknowledged the academic toppers by conferring them with awards and medals and bestowed our blessings to our scholars who were to appear for their boards. We also bid Cheerios to outgoing batch of class XII session 2023-24.

From bagging the Times Education Icon Award to getting the IAYP certification to registering our name in the World Book of Records, London. We made an indelible mark in the field of educational excellence.

I hereby wish to extend my sincere regards to all the students and stakeholders for making this academic journey a fruitful one.
